

Casualty Underwriter

SHAPE YOUR FUTURE WITH US

General Star is a premier specialty and surplus lines provider, underwriting specialty property and casualty (P&C) insurance for risks with more difficult exposures. It markets its products through appointed wholesale brokers and managing general agents (MGAs) in the U.S. General Star is a wholly-owned subsidiary of General Re Corporation, a subsidiary of Berkshire Hathaway Inc. General Re Corporation is a holding company for global reinsurance and related operations, with more than 2,000 employees worldwide.

General Star currently offers an excellent opportunity for a Casualty Underwriter, focused on business opportunities originating from U.S. west coast clients. This position can be based out of our Atlanta, Chicago, or Los Angeles offices.

ROLE DESCRIPTION

The Underwriter performs a wide array of underwriting and marketing functions, demonstrating knowledge and competence in both client relationship management and technical underwriting skills. Underwriting functions include analyzing and evaluating complex risks and exposures, and applying a working knowledge of rates, forms, pricing structures, terms and conditions in primary and excess casualty lines. The Underwriter acts in collaboration with a team of professionals within the branch and corporately, leveraging the company's resources to provide a best in class response to our valued clients.

Responsibilities:

Underwriting Analysis: The Underwriter researches and analyzes complex risks and exposures, using critical thinking skills in applying the tools and resources available to structure competitive and sound proposals. Each underwriter contributes to our team, where discussion of account opportunities and sharing of knowledge is part of our daily routine and manages a flow of individual risk submissions where speed of response is valued by clients. The Underwriter is adept in the application of rates, forms, pricing structures, terms and conditions, and recognizes the direct impact each decision has on developing a profitable book business.

It is the General Re Corporation continuing policy to afford equal employment opportunity to all employees and applicants for employment without regard to race, color, sex (including childbirth or related medical conditions), religion, national origin or ancestry, age, past or present disability, marital status, liability for service in the armed forces, veterans status, citizenship, sexual orientation, gender identity, or any other characteristic protected by applicable law. In addition, Gen Re provides reasonable accommodation for qualified individuals with disabilities in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act.

ROLE DESCRIPTION

Relationship Building: The Underwriter also concentrates on advancing existing client relationships as well as identifying new prospects throughout our territory from Los Angeles. Seeking to bring a creative array of alternatives, options, and solutions to clients, the individual is comfortable connecting with and influencing clients at the management level. In conjunction with the other underwriters and with the Unit Manager's support, the Underwriter develops strategies to broaden their opportunities through crafting sound client management plans.

Learning/Development: The Underwriter takes an active role in increasing their knowledge of industry policies, principles, and newly emerging exposures by attending and actively participating in all Company underwriting/technical seminars as well as outside industry-related courses (CPCU, ASLI).

Related Activities: The Underwriter seeks opportunities to lead or support underwriting and marketing activities / projects for the Los Angeles Branch and/or Casualty Division, including developing new products, training new underwriters and working on special client entertainment or educational events.

ROLE QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE

- Minimum of three years commercial insurance industry experience, five or more years preferred
- Undergraduate college degree
- Strong analytical and critical thinking skills
- Strong verbal and written communication skills
- Strong client relationship management skills
- Demonstrated commitment to learning
- Well-developed industry knowledge
- Enthusiastic team player / self-starter
