General Star Creates Primary Casualty Specialist Team

Stamford, CT, September 20, 2017 ... General Star Management Company today announced the creation of the Primary Casualty Specialist Team within the Casualty Brokerage Division. The new team will consist of Maria Manuli (Primary Practice Leader), Ed Felcyn, Michelle Yoshida and Brianna Gatto.

“We have assembled an experienced and committed team with the knowledge and energy to grow our primary casualty business,” said Cole Palmer, Senior Vice President and Casualty and Professional Brokerage Division Manager for General Star. “We are energized about building primary business with our wholesale brokers. The Primary Casualty Specialist Team will work with all of our casualty brokerage underwriters to deliver innovative solutions.” General Star President and CEO Marty Hacala added, “General Star is continuing to expand its multi-line offerings. The Primary Casualty Specialist Team is another example of our ongoing commitment to being a leader in serving the needs of the E & S marketplace.”

Underwritten by General Star’s Casualty Division, primary coverage will be written on a non-admitted basis by General Star Indemnity Company, which is rated A++ (Superior) by A.M. Best Company, and carries an AA+ Insurance Financial Strength Rating from Standard & Poor’s Corporation. General Star is a wholly-owned subsidiary of General Reinsurance Corporation, a member of the Berkshire Hathaway family of companies.
